

Mr. Mario Redmond Jr.

February 13, 1989 - November 22, 2022

Mario Martinez Redmond, Jr. was born February 13, 1989, in Minneapolis, MN to his parents, Denise Inez Reed and Mario Martinez Redmond, Sr. At a young age, he moved to Milwaukee, WI with his parents and older sister. Mario graduated from the Milwaukee Public Schools. Growing up, Mario definitely had a passion for singing and performing in many local and family talent shows. Mario loved to play basketball and football to which he excelled as an athlete. He played in the AAU and PAL tournaments, oftentimes challenging and roughing up his little sister "Nae." He definitely was the silliest of his four siblings by always keeping the house laughing with jokes.

Mario had a special bond with his parents whom he affectionately called "Moms" or "Big Niicy" and "Pops."

Mario was a fierce protector of his family. Scoop, as he was known by his family, had a big heart and cherished family time and always had the desire to get together with his mom and dad's sides of the family. He was a very intelligent, free thinker. During his lifetime, Mario had the privilege to be a father to four beautiful children, KiMarion, Demarius, E'mahriyah, and Marionna Redmond. He loved training Demarius with basketball drills and trying to give good advice to handle life. He referred to his girls as daddy's princesses. Mario worked hard to show his kids love on a daily basis and they knew that.

He was employed at WestRock in Germantown, WI. Mario enjoyed traveling, watching sports, and going to sports games, Something else he enjoyed that his little brother Larry didn't really enjoy was coming in from his third shift job, talking loud and updating him on everything while Larry was trying to sleep. Mario was known for talking. Not much could keep him quiet. Moms, Pops, Big Sis, Little Sis, Baby Bro, Grandma Gin, Grandma Erma and Unc could always expect a call or text from Scoop. You better believe it was going to be a lengthy conversation with Scoop doing most of the talking.

Mario was loved and he will be dearly missed he departed this life on November 22, 2022. He was preceded in death by his son, Ki'Marion Redmond, grandfather, John H. Reed, great grandmothers, Stella McFarland, Cora Lee Barksdale, and Dorothy Johnson, uncles, Kevin Johnson and Carlton Reed, his aunt, Diane Evans, and first cousins, Romero Johnson and Sharae Redmond.

He is survived by his parents, Denise Reed and Mario Redmond, Sr., his children, Demarius, E'mahriyah and Marionna Redmond, siblings, Latoya (Jake) Kozlowski, Lanae Rash, Larry Rash, grandmothers, Inez "Gin" Reed and Erma Johnson, grandfather, Lovelace Redmond and two nieces, Brook'Lyn Rash and Kira Kozlowski and one nephew, Kadin Kozlowski. Mario was truly loved and adored by a host of cherished aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

“ Despite the hurt, tears and pain at the loss of my cousin Mario (family nickname Scoop), I’m focusing on the good times we had with him as a family. My last conversation with Mario was upbeat and positive. We loved him and his children. I look forward to the future because Jehovah promises at Acts 24:15, “there is going to be a resurrection” here on the earth. That promise is dear to my heart. I look forward to welcoming Mario back and giving him a hug in a new world where peace will prevail.

Love,
Cousin Jackie

“ I fortunate enough to meet Mario through his mother. We worked together for the past 3 years. She always spoke fondly of Mario and was proud of the changes he made in his life. Upon meeting Mario in person, I was impressed by his optimism for the future. Mario will be sadly missed.

“ I've known Mario his entire life (we grew up together). He and I share a multitude of childhood memories. Specifically, I recall Mario always visiting my family and asking my mom if he could drive my electric barbie car - he drove the wheels off that car. His death weighs heavy on my heart. I loved and cared for him and his infectious spirit will be missed. My condolences to the Redmond/Reed family as everyone attempts to cope with this tremendous loss.

Love Always,
C.J.
