“ To the family of Mrs. Mary Jean Price:
Aunt Jean's numerous visits to Zanesville, Ohio in the summer with my uncle Andy were memorable. She re-visited Zanesville even after Uncle Andy passed away. My father, Jesse D. Price was Uncle Andy's joy and big brother as uncle Andy drove many miles to Zanesville to visit my dad every chance he could get; up and through my dad's illness. Since my mother also had the name "Mary Price" - they had something in common in being sisters-in-law. She could curl her legs as a pretzel and yet speak with authority when we as children see saw some thing out of place. She loved children treating ll children with love as if her own, fondly calling us baby or sugar affectionately. I remember her using a house slipper to correct- but it was only for show since she showed more love. She brought, Angie, and Jerry to Zanesville some summers also. Rest in peace, Aunt Jean. I will see you in heaven; in Knowing Jesus is " the way, the truth, and the life" --no man comes to Father but by Jesus" - the promise of Eternal life.
