“ A Blue Jay landed on my porch today such a beautiful sight in a world that feels so gray right now. I couldn't pull my eyes away, and then I thought of you and all of the love and all of the things that you never knew. Then I thought of me and all the things I can never change, my heart fell into pieces my tears fell down like rain. I couldn't let you know how much I love'd you, I can't erase that from my mind. I would tell you that again and again if I could just see you one more time. But now you're gone I pray and pray that it isn't too late to say these words, I love you cousin Keta! That's when I felt a breeze and at that time, that Blue Jay flew away..then I heard the whisper of the wind in a sweet voice and it said "everything will be ok"###imported-begin##Anita Johnson###imported-end##
