“ This was a good man.
An empathetic man of strong faith who used humor to lift and encourage, never hurt. Mike’s positivity and wisdom will be missed by the staff and participants of the Men Moving Forward project at their weekly meetings and exercise sessions. He brought the wisdom of a full life to all who were blessed enough to know him and smart enough to listen.
I will miss the friendship, laughter and sharing of life stories that I was blessed to experience on a daily basis for over a year while we worked together. Mike, you taught me that I should appreciate every single moment of every single day because there are no guarantees that we will have another one. Thank you for that important bit of sage advice.
I will miss you, my friend. But I am filled with joy knowing that the Spirit received you with open arms and you will not suffer anymore. Rest in Power, Mike. You deserve it.
