

Mrs. Nannie Horton

December 16, 1927 - April 19, 2013

Nannie Horton was born on December 16, 1927 in the small town of Lexington, Mississippi. She was the 7th of 9 children born to Malinda Montgomery Travis and Craig Travis.

She attended and graduated from Ambrose High School in Lexington, and in 1950 she married Willie James Horton. They were blessed with three children. Nan was a loving and devoted wife and mother who enjoyed being a homemaker. She was especially fond of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

In 1959 Nan was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses and became part of a worldwide brotherhood. Being part of the Christian congregation was something she cherished and it brought her much joy. She was known for her warmth and genuine concern for others. She enjoyed spending time in the door-to-door ministry, studying the Bible with others and attending assemblies and conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses along with her family. She was hospitable and enjoyed having pioneers and those in the circuit work visit with her family over the years.

On Friday, April 19th, Nan fell asleep in death. She was preceded in death by her husband, Willie, and her 8 siblings. She leaves to cherish her memory: 2 daughters-Linda (James) Billings; Julia (William) Yow; and 1 son; Christopher (Sonya) Horton. She also leaves 9 grandchildren:

Nathan and Micah Billings; Dwayne, Will, Damien, and Kimberly Yow; Keon, Karis, and Kyle Horton; and 10 great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind a dear brother-in-law, LaSalle Malone of Jackson, Mississippi and a sister-in-law, Ida Mae Wiley of Durant, Mississippi, as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
