

Mrs. Naomi Fortune

October 3, 1939 - September 3, 2017

Naomi Fortune was born October 3, 1939 to the union of John Henry Jackson and Pauline Watts in St. Louis, Missouri.

Naomi was a believer and was a servant of God.

She enjoyed spending time with family, playing bingo, talking on the phone, laughing, shopping, reminiscing, jewelry and rummaging with her daughters. She loved to make family and friends happy through her generosity and kind heart. She instilled morals and values along with family loyalty in all her children. Through her journey her high spirits always remained untouched. She had a special relationship with her grandchildren and great grandchildren that she helped raise until her dying day. She valued family and had a close bond with each of her family members.

Naomi Fortune departed this life on September 3, 2017. She was preceded in death by sisters, Henrietta Curtis, Dorrille Willingham, Lucille Cook, twin brother, Ned Jackson and brothers, John Paul Jackson and Heartlee Jackson, grandson, Hesham Khalil and son-in-law, Felix Fleming.

She leaves to cherish her memory: brother, Shannon (Bertha) Jackson and sister-in-law, Waletta Jackson; children, James Fortune, Ricky Fortune, Carletta Fleming, Tony Fortune, Pauline Khalil, Carlos Fortune and Michael Fortune; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren and many long standing friends.
