“ Contin,

While we’re celebrating; you will be elevating to a higher love It’s more like graduating from earth to heaven and what God does

You’ll see tears and smiles simultaneously, because it’s bitter sweet

*Knowing that the rest of our lives will always be incomplete
But we understand that God needs you more than friends and family*

So we won’t hesitate to send your soul to a much higher place

*Just remember; the memories we know, they will never be erased Once you reach that higher love, look God in the eye for us
And give him our thanks for choosing his son to die for us
And every once in a while; crack a smile through the sky for us*

No matter where we go; you’ll be with us until we see you again

*In that higher love, with the most blessed women and men Recovering from your absence will definitely take some time Even when we grasp it, our vision of you will never become blind We’ll just know you’re in a higher love, a love that’s one of a kind##imported-begin##Tabitha conway

“ ~A Higher Love~ My Condolences go out to the family and friend of Ora Mae Rodgers

No matter how much we prepare; it's impossible to forecast this day

*All we can do is wear a smile for you and the love God sent our way God sent you to us to keep our hearts full of unconditional love
And I think it's safe to say that you exceeded his every expectation*

You did a wonderful job on earth; now it's time for your celebration###imported-begin###Tabitha conway ###imported-end###
