

Mr. Otis Watson

July 30, 1955 - October 21, 2022

Otis Watson was born on July 30, 1955 to the union of Velma L Mungon and David Mungon in Rosedale Mississippi. He accepted Christ at a very early age.

He received his formal education in Rosedale MS. Otis also continued his studies at Coahoma Community College in Clarksdale MS. He later relocated to Milwaukee as a young man. Otis worked as a Skilled Trade Boner for Peck Meat Packing now called Emmepak for 32 years until he retired. Otis favorite pastime was tinkering in his garage or on a car. He would get off work to work on a car.

If you needed him he was coming, didn't matter who it was. Otis loved to travel south when he got the chance, as it was home away from home. His Pride and joy was to be with his grand-babies, he often said that is what he lived for.

Otis departed this life on October 21, 2022. His parents and three brothers preceded him in death. Richard Mungon, Darnell Mungon and John Mungon. He leaves to cherish his memory, his pride and joy, yes his children Otis Rockmore, Stephanie Gray, Precious Monk 5 step kids Marcus Johnson, Deyawnda Comer, Marvin Grey, Yolanda Grey, Jacqueline Rockmore of Milwaukee WI,

Otis has nine grandchildren Alison R, Alexis R, Annessa R, Montrail R, Passion E., Nivea K Naziyah W, and Tiffani W, a beautiful sister Lula Mungon of Milwaukee WI. Five Loving Brothers, James C. Williams (Margret) of

Madison WI, Willie Mungon, Jerry L. Mungon (Laura), all of Milwaukee WI, Lelrick Mungon

of Phoenix AZ, Calvin D, Mungon of Houston TX. He is also survived by host of nieces and nephews and many cousins, along with other family and friends.
Otis also is survived by a very special friend of 21 years; she stood by his side through thick and thin Ms. Janet Robinson.

If you had the pleasure of meeting Otis, you know he was pure love, "A Man Among Men He Put No One Above Him Nor No One Beneath Him!"
He Was A True Friend!

“ You will be missed in our hearts every day
Your laughter your smile your unselfish ways
Words can never express the way we feel
If love alone could have saved you, you would still be here
God has prepared a place for you I'm told
In this heavenly city the streets are paved with Gold
So rest dear cousin you were truly the best
The apple of God's eye and nothing less
