

Ms. Pamela Joyce Gaston

January 27, 1971 - December 9, 2019

How do we describe the shine of the sun in all its radiating beauty? Why it was the smile on the face of our loving Pamela. Pamela got her wings on December 9, 2019, leaving all of us to dance and rejoice in all the love she left with us.

Pamela was born January 27, 1971 to Robert and Beulah Hagler (Her mom proceeded her in death. As well as her grandparents, Henry and Helen Hagler) Nathan and Eunice Gatson and her sister, Jackie Ann Gatson.

Pamela was the 5th child to join the Hagler/Gatson family. At birth Pam was diagnosed with a rare kidney disease sighting odd that she would not live pass, age 3. Welrire kllOw how that went, especially when the Creator is in control. Pam soon became kno~n as Lil Pam, making her mark in the family. She attended Green Bay A venue Elementary, Sholes Middle school and graduated from North Division High. She attended Bryant and Straton College, majoring in Business Administration. Pam's health began to take a toll on her and her kidneys were failing.

On dialysis's for the next eighteen years, Pam never showed that she was ever ill. The beauty of the sun always shined on her face.

Pam had two children, Jacinda Renee Gatson (Brandon) of Las Vegas Nevada and Deondrae Montrell Gatson (Jazsymn) of Kenosha, WI. They were her pride and joy. Never to stop shining like the sun, motherhood is what she loved. Always quite and reserved but a storm filled with love when it came to children. Lil Pam became a community mom to many. She became known as the 11th Street Mom. That safe place for children.

Lil Pam enjoyed all the spices of life. Traveling, reading, doing crossword puzzles and cooking, she could burn. She found someone who she could really enjoy doing all the things she loved.

She thought the world of the wonderful, devoted and handsome Charles E. Stevens, her finance'. Her sunshine. There were three other people that brought the sun, the stars and the moon together for Lil Pam, they were her grandchildren, Kahlon, Justin and Deondrae Jr. They were the twinkle in her eyes.

Lil Pam, we your family, thank you, for being, your love was divine and we will continue to spread it all over this world. Pam leaves special moments of Joy, Peace and Love, for all of u to cherish, Robert Hagler, 3 Sisters: Aretha Lakay, Caroline, Angelia Denise Milwaukee, WI, 2 Brothers: Gerald of Milwaukee, WI: Bernard-Chicago, III.
