

Ms. Patty Taylor

April 27, 1952 - February 26, 2021

Celebrating the Life of Patty Lou Taylor Patty Lou Taylor was born April 27 , 1952, to the union of Robert L. Taylor, Sr. and Mary Lou Taylor. As a young girl, Patty enjoyed making friends, most that she communicated with until her death. She loved watching football, fishing, and gardening. Patty loved her family, especially her favorite girl, Kiani Taylor. Patty received her formal education within Milwaukee Public Schools and received her G.E.D. later in life. Patty worked for UWM Silver Spring Community Nursing Center for 15+ years as a project assistant. Her co-workers became a part of her family. Patty dedicated most of her life caring for her daughter Mary "Mimi" Taylor but she gave time to all other family members, where we often joked about who was her "favorite". Patty loved snacks and she opened her home to many people over the years. Patty was peacefully born into eternal life on Friday, February 26, 2021. She was preceded in death by parents, Robert L. Taylor, Sr. and Mary Lou Taylor; brother, Robert L. Taylor, [r., daughter, Mary Louise "Mimi" Taylor; and granddaughters, Kyla Taylor and Persephone Taylor. Patty leaves to cherish her memory: sons, Lathel (Yolanda) Taylor and Tyree (Whitney) Taylor; daughters, Trenita Taylor and LeCretia "Nikki" Taylor; grandchildren, Lavon Hawkins, Nakia Taylor, Zari Blackmon, Dachau T. Lyle (aka Little Red Fox), Miesha Hawkins, Nakari Lyle, and Jada Hawkins; great-granddaughter and favorite girl, Kiani Taylor; sisters, Delores Taylor, Mary E.

Taylor, Nada McCants, and Debra Taylor; brother, Aldwin (Peggy) Taylor; best friend/sister, Bernice Rogers; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and close friends who loved her dearly.

Tribute Wall

MT

“ My beautiful sister Patty Lou. I miss you dearly. Always the wise one; and softly spoken one. Your legacy of “caring” is untouched. MiMi can rest now that you will be with her in heaven. Two hearts beat as one eternally. My heart just aches for your children and the grands. You shared with me how much you love them. I love you sister and I know you love me. Rest peacefully in God’s love.

Your sister, Mary Elizabeth
