

Mrs. Pauline Jemison Howard

April 8, 1922 - April 4, 2015

Pauline Jemison Howard was born on April 8, 1922 in Aliceville, AL. Her parents, who preceded her in death, were Leola Cunningham and Simon Jemison. She was the eldest of two daughters. At an early age, she became a disciple of Christ, joining the New Canaan Baptist in Aliceville, AL.

Pauline was educated within the public schools of Aliceville, where she graduated from Summerville High School. After graduating, she moved to Tuscaloosa AL where she lived for several years before relocating to Elgin, Illinois. In Elgin, she joined Second Baptist Church where she remained faithful until she went to Milwaukee, WI.

Pauline was the proud mother of one son, Melvin Baugh, who preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Melvin Howard.

Pauline was a devoted housekeeper for the Berlie family of Milwaukee, WI for more than twenty years where she assisted the family with the daily chores and management of the household activities and care of the children.

Pauline, a dedicated servant of God, joined with Progressive Baptist Church, Milwaukee, WI on August 8, 1994 where she served faithfully for twenty years in several of the ministries of the church, lending her guidance and wisdom to many. "Mother Howard" as she was affectionately known, deeply cared about her church family and the work of the Lord.

In her leisure, she enjoyed reading, helping others and volunteering wherever she was needed. In her later years, the residents of Riverview where she lived held "Coffee with Ms. Pauline" on each Wednesday morning to provide a time to come together to fellowship and support each other.

Pauline Jemison Howard departed this life on Saturday, April 4, 2015. She leaves to celebrate and honor her life a devoted sister, Laura Jemison of Chicago, IL; one grandson, Mark Baugh of Arizona; one granddaughter, Shana Pennywell of Atlanta, GA; several great-grandchildren; a devoted cousin, Rubye Taylor-Drake of Homer Glen, IL; a special friend and caregiver, Carolyn Parker of Milwaukee, WI; and a host of cousins, family and friends.
