

Mrs Quincella Malone

February 25, 1937 - November 4, 2020

Quincella Malone, age 83, passed away peacefully November 4th, 2020. She was born February 25, 1937 in Forest City, Arkansas to James and Larah Cooper. She was united in holy matrimony to John Thornton (1958) and later married to Hercules Malone.

She graduated from Altermizer High School in 1956. After graduating she moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin for 6 months before enlisting in the United States Army. For 20 years, Quincella worked at Jewish Vocational Services as a food service trainer. Both fields suited her serving heart.

Quincella loved to love on people. And more than likely she loved you through her food. Cooking was her passion. She excelled in cooking all foods, but her specialties were seafood salad, barbeque, and lasagna. John and Quincella were business partners and opened the first black-owned Italian restaurant. They were both trained under Eugene "Geno" Bruno.

In 1950, at the age of 13, she accepted Christ into her life and was baptized and filled with the Holy Ghost in Sherylville, Arkansas. It was much later when Quincella became an active member at Mt Zion of Assembly for many years, engaging as a Dorcas Sisters' member.

Quincella was a dedicated mother and believed in togetherness amongst family. She treasured her children and her role as grandmother even more. She had a vibrant personality and always made people around her smile and laugh. Quincella always had a story to share, a plate to feed, and a song to sing.

Quincella Malone was preceded in death by her husband, Hercules Malone; parents, James and Larah Cooper; sisters, Fannie Lee, Beulah Mae, Pairlee, and Linda; brothers, AC, Melvin, JC, and James; grandson, Roderick Lea-del Davis, Sr.; and great-grandson, Roderick Leander, Jr. She will be sorely missed and survived by her sons, Arlando, and Dennis Ray Thornton; daughter, Beverly Ann Townsend of IN; granddaughter, Asabi Johnson; .great-grandchildren, Malik, Amear, Samaria, Zion, and Indira; sister, Nora Green; and a host of dear nieces, nephews, and other family members and friends. All of these she loved and touched deeply.
