Miss Me, But Let Me Go

As I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no nights in a gloom-fined room. Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a little, but not too long and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared. Miss me, but let me go.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends and family we know.
Bury your sorrow in doing good deeds. Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey that we must take and each must go alone.
It is an a part of the master's plan. A step on the road to home.
