Rashaan was a great guy, he and I would joke around whenever he traveled to the Madison office. Even after not seeing him for a couple of years, he still would send the occasional message, just to say hello. His smile would automatically put a smile on your face. Until we meet on the other side, my friend, Rest in the arms of our Savior.

“ Shaan aka (RKaTek), I can still see your humbled smile, you were a very mild spirited young man and a joy to be around, my family will truly miss you. When Kendric first brought you to our home I knew you were special and the two of you had kindred spirits. You have finished your work on this side, now God has called you home. While we grieve your farwell, we will celebrate the memories you left us with. May God Bless the family and give them the strength needed in this time of grief. Farwell for now my friend.

“ There are so many things that I wish I should have said to you. Know that you'll always be in my heart and I love you dearly. You have always been and will always be my first love and the love of my life. My heart is so heavy, nothing can fill this empty void. As I sit here and close my eyes, I can see the smile you had on your face the day we met and the day you took me as your wife. I'm grateful for all of the wonderful memories that we shared.

To everyone viewing this... express your feelings to your friends and family often because you never know what tomorrow may bring.

Until we meet again,

The love of your life, Shanta L. Hobbs
