

Mr. Rayvon Dominique Wilson

April 5, 1987 - April 25, 2013

Rayvon Dominique Wilson was born April 5, 1987 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin to parents, Cynthia McKnight and Lyle McDowell. Rayvon lived a saved life on the earth and loved God with all his heart and he sought out to know God more and to bring others to that fact. Rayvon loved his daughter Laraya Wilson. He was father of the year everyday and if you saw him you saw her. I would often tease him and say you had her and he would laugh so hard. Rayvon had a strong love for his entire family and he loved spending time with them, eating big dinners, talking and laughing. People just loved him and loved being around him. Rayvon had a big smile that he was famous for those pearly whites in which he got from his father Lyle, whom he loved very much. He also loved his brothers and sisters and made sure they were on the right path in life. Rayvon was a good friend, he had so many that he loved we can't name them all. Rayvon received his high school diploma in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and furthered his education through trade courses for construction.

Rayvon is saved in Jesus name and by the grace of God. He was united with Kingdom Living Worship Center where he was training to be a Deacon. Although he was not married, he had proposed to the love of his life, Latroya Robinson and they had been blessed with one daughter. Rayvon had a passion for boxing, he loved being in the ring, training and working out. He was in the Golden Gloves and trained for the Olympics. Rayvon worked hard for Northcott Community Center. He loved his coworkers and going to work everyday and he took pride in being on time and doing a good job for his employers. This is part of what having integrity means and he was full of integrity. He was an extraordinary human being and he lived an extraordinary life. To know him was to love him. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Rayvon Dominique Wilson departed this life on April 25, 2013. He was preceded in death by grandmother, Ida Mae McDowell.
