SUNRISE: Reginald Lee Lawrence, Sr. was born January 29, 1944, to the union of William Lee Lawrence II and Ruby Mae Lawrence in Milwaukee, WI. Reginald received his formal education at West Division High School in Milwaukee, WI. He then joined the Marine Corps where he served as a Lance Corporal with an expertise in rifle sharp shooting.

Reginald accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age.

Reggie could fix or build anything one could imagine. One of Reggie's most favorite past times included watching CNN World News and keeping everyone updated on world events. Reggie was the life of any party and known for his "dessert first" request. Reggie loved family time. He participated in all holidays, birthday, and personal and professional celebratory accomplishments. Reggie shared a special bond with his children and grandchildren. They all had their own special unique relationship with their father and grandfather. He made certain they all knew they were an important part of his life, and he was there for them in any capacity in which they needed him. The memories created will last them all a lifetime.

Reginald Lee Lawrence "Reggie" was a true gentleman. His outspoken honesty was a trait we all loved him for as well as the nicknames he gave his loved ones. Reggie was a great husband, father and grandfather and will be missed by all who had the opportunity to know him.
