

Mr. Renaldo Herron Sr.

September 6, 1983 - May 11, 2025

Renaldo Eugene Herron, Sr. was born on September 6, 1983, in Jackson, Mississippi. At the tender age of four, he moved with his family to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he would grow into the incredible man we all came to know and cherish.

The beloved son of Florence Truss-Herron and Ronald Herron, Sr., Renaldo was the heart of his family from the very beginning. On October 17, 2020, in Milwaukee, he married his childhood sweetheart, Janita Jenkins-Herron-the love of his life since they were just eight years old. Their union was built on deep affection, loyalty, and shared dreams.

Renaldo earned his GED and a Certification in Construction Fundamentals from Madison Area Technical College. He was a dedicated machine technician at "Handle It," where he poured his passion and skill into his work with great pride. A hard worker in every sense, Renaldo took even more pride in his role as a provider and protector of his family.

Renaldo was the definition of a family man. A joyful spirit and a "big kid" at heart, he did not play when it came to his children-he loved them fiercely and without hesitation. He relished road trips with his wife and kids, treasured time spent with his grandchildren, and loved laughing and bonding with his brothers. One of his favorite comforts was popping up at his mom's house just to lay across her bed or Face Timing his dad for their daily check-ins.

He found joy in the gym-gym, gym, and more gym-and riding his 3-wheeler. Always dressed to impress, Renaldo had a remarkable sense of style and knew just how to "put it on." His presence lit up every room, and his laughter was contagious. He carried wisdom beyond his years and was truly the glue that held his brothers together. To them, he was the matriarch, the steady strength, and the heartbeat of the family.

Renaldo transitioned from this life on May 11, 2025, at the age of 41, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin .

He was preceded in death by his grandmothers Mazil-Lee Truss and Mary Herron, his grandfather James Perteet, his great-grandparents Mary Sue Truss and Earsy Truss, his nephew Raquan Herron, and his lifelong friend William Brandon Bailey.

Renaldo leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and unforgettable memories. He is survived by: his devoted wife, Janita Herron; and their children: daughters Nierra Herron, Rakeiya Herron, Jody Fobisong, Renee Herron, and Ryon Herron, and son Renaldo Eugene Herron, Jr.

He will be forever remembered by: his parents Florence Truss-Herron and Ronald Herron, Sr.; his siblings: Ronald Herron, Jr., Ryan (Stephanie) Herron, Sr., Rashawn Herron, and Audrey Pierron; and his many nieces and nephews: Revion Herron, Ryan Herron, Jr., Rakai Herron, Ryheem Herron, Rihanna Herron, Rochell Herron, and Royal Herron.

Renaldo was a proud grandfather to Prince Berry, King Berry, and Honnesti

Smith. He also leaves behind a host of cousins, extended family, and friends who loved him deeply and will continue to carry his memory in their hearts.
