“ Goodbye my friend, my confidant, my spiritual leader. I am going to miss you Rev. Stovall, you married me in 1987, you help me raise my children in church, I love you and your family very much. To your wife and children, I wish I could be there because he was my conscience on many occasion, when I want to stray he kept me on the right path and I am doing what he taught me do, be faithful to God always. My prayer are with you all, and I am praying that you all continue to lean on God to keep holding you up. Love Sis Liz Bates###imported-begin##Elizabeth Johnson Bates Hart###imported-end##

“ The "Great Amen" won't ever be the same without Rev. Stoval singing Halleluja & thank you Jesus. As the Singalong Pals Joan & Ginny, we closed our Sunday afternoon singing sessions sending blessings to all the residents, staff & families with a rousing "Great Amen." What a stirring, inimitable addition to our Trinity Chorale Rev. Stovall became as he taught our group "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart" and the timing on 'call/response, holding his own singing "It Is Well With My Soul." His elegant voice brought delight to all as we wheeled him back to his room harmonizing "Precious Lord."

If he wasn't able to attend our singalong, we'd often go to his room & ask if he'd like to sing the "Our Father, Precious Lord" so he wouldn't have to miss out. He always agreed & joined in. With gratitude & grace he'd offer a candy treat for remembering him. Singing seemed like his talk with God. We are thankful he included us in his conversation .

Joan & I are forever grateful to have known Rev. Justus Stovall & we'll miss him dearly. Our prayers & thoughts are with him for speedy transition & with the family as you celebrate & honor his life as God's servant.

Love & blessings,

Ginny

“ My papa was like second father to me, sometimes he was very hard on me; but it was for my own good. He was a good person, very loving, generous by nature. He really loved people; talking to them, going to see them and what he could to help them out. I will miss him very much... and i will never forget him. he is now at peace. hope to see again. love you papa. love kellie; your first granddaughter.##imported-begin##kellie diskerud##imported-end##
