“ Aunt Rose,

Although you are no longer here with us, you're spirit will always live on in our hearts. I will always cherish the memories of the summers I spent with you, and those famous peach cobbler pies, that you would always make especially for me. No one had a sense of humor as good as yours. Always cracking jokes to make me laugh, and smile. You will surely be missed, but God has one amazing angel with Him now. So rest in peace my sweet Aunt Rose...##imported-begin##Nicci Hamilton##imported-end##

“ *My precious Aunt Rose, Nobody loved music, finger snapping and toe tapping more than you, maybe you're why I love music and dancing so much. I will always have great memories of coming to Milwaukee when Jerome was born, hanging out on the steps with Freddy and Suzette and Joyce telling me that "Mama said bring your --- home." Watching my kids at your house and you laughing at seeing "Dorothy Ann little babies". Summer Jazz Festivals were when you'd be guaranteed to see us. You always made us welcome and we felt deeply loved.
Conversations on the phone when we couldn't see each other and everybody in South Bend getting ready because Aunt Rose was coming to town. I will dearly miss your smile, your wit and the way you could lighten up any situation, and most of all your love!! As long as I have been in the world there has always been an Aunt Rose, now you're gone but what love and such an impact you left on my life!!*

*Forever you niece,

“ Vicky, Joyce, Jerome:

Don't think of your Mom as gone away her journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of your Mom as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of your Mom as living in the hearts of those she touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and she was loved so much.

I love you Aunt Rose&hellip;

“ Aunt Rose,
Although you are not here anymore. I will never forget your wit. The special aunt that loved everyone. But would tell us exactly what you wanted or needed us to know. The bible says to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. So that's how I think of you as being with the Lord. Rest on Aunt Rose your earthly duty is done. I will miss you, you will never be forgotten.
Your neice,

“ Dear Sister going to miss you so much. There is a lot of love in the world, But there nothing like a sister's love. The love you and your sister share is so deep. It's so deep that nobody can take it away. A sister is a friend who listens to your deepest secrets and understands what you went through and going through. A sister loves you for who you are and I love you for that going to miss your calls and our talk. You Sis Babysister##imported-begin##Pearline Hamilton##imported-end##
