

Mrs. Rosie Kathryn Parker-Dunnett

January 2, 1951 - February 23, 2025

Rosie K. Parker Dunnett was born on January 2, 1951, in Carbon Hill, Alabama, to William and Lula Mae Parker. She was the third of twelve children. At the age of 12, Rosie accepted Christ as her Savior and was baptized at New Hope Baptist Church.

She began her education at Dunbar High School and later attended Carbon High School, where she earned her diploma following integration. After graduating, she moved to Buffalo, NY, before settling in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Committed to lifelong learning, she furthered her education at Milwaukee Area Technical College and MBTI Business School.

Rosie was a devoted mother to her son and, in 2002, married Walter J. Dunnett in Nevada.

She dedicated 28 years of service to Milwaukee County before retiring.

Passionate about justice, she was actively involved in community advocacy and served on several local councils.

Her faith remained a cornerstone of her life, and she was a member of multiple churches in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Rosie K. Parker Dunnett departed this life on February 23, 2025, and will be missed dearly. She leaves to mourn her loss: 7 sisters, 2 brothers, and a host of other relatives and friends.
