

Mrs. Roslyn Delores Burks

September 12, 1948 - August 23, 2018

Roslyn Dolores Smith Burks was born in Louisville, Kentucky on September 12, 1948 to Floretha Galloway Smith and Theodore Roosevelt Smith. Roslyn attended Shawnee High School graduating with honors. She attended Morehead State University, Jefferson Community College (JCC) and the University of Louisville where she earned a master's degree in both social work and guidance, and in counseling and education.

Roslyn attended Ebenezer Baptist Church in Louisville where she was baptized at the age of nine, married, and raised her children. She later joined Portland Memorial Baptist Church (Louisville) and Lamb of God Baptist Church in Milwaukee, Wisconsin where she continued to grow her faith and belief in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. “ My sincere thoughts and prayers to the family. I only knew Rosalyn for a year as her neighbor living across from her. Before we introduced ourselves we spoke if she was at her door getting her mail as I passed by or if I was sitting outside she would wave. Then I started visiting her. We prayed together and I enjoyed sitting with her. I miss my friend.
