

Bro. Roy Bradley

June 4, 1957 - November 15, 2023

Roy Bradley was born on June 4, 1957, to the union of Leotha and Ruby Bradley in Cleveland, Mississippi. He was a twin and the eighth child born to this union. Roy received his formal education within the BCS School System. He attended Eastside High in Cleveland, MS.

Bro. Roy accepted Christ as his Savior in his later years and was united with Church of the First Born in Whitewater, Wisconsin, under the leadership of Apostle Pernell H. Hewing.

In 1978, Roy Bradley was united in holy matrimony to his high school sweetheart, Lonnie Edwards. They were married for 45 years, "but they were together 50 years". He dated Lonnie for five years before he popped the question, "Will you marry me?". Their union was blessed with two sons, Terrance

Lanardo, and then eight years later, Lawrence Jamarques.

When you think about Roy, you can't help but to think sports. He LOVED sports. If you wanted to know who was playing, all you had to do was call him up and he could tell you the day, time, and channel. If you missed watching the game, he could tell you who won or loss. That was Bro. Roy to a tee.

Roy Bradley departed this life on November 15, 2023, at 5: 12 pm, with his loving wife, son, and family members by his side. He was preceded in death by his: father, Leotha Bradley; mother, Ruby Bradley; sisters, Malinda Bradley, Brenda Bradley, and Sharon Bailey; and brothers, George Bradley, McKinley Bradley, Carl Bradley, and Leotha Bradley.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his bea aka wife, Lonnie Mae; sons, Terrance (Krista) Bradley and Lawrence Bradley; brothers, Ray Bradley (twin) and Norman Bradley; sisters, Margaret Towner, Geraldine Brown, Dorothy Bradley, and Annette Bradley; 3 grandsons, Terrance Jr. (T- man), D'Anthony (Duke), and Lonardo (Hurk); granddaughter, Heaven (Holly Mae); great-granddaughter, Mekala; close friend, Ethan Williams, who put that last smile on his face; sports buddy, Eddie Ball; favorite sisters-in-law, Bobbie and Shirley; special niece, Tashia Edwards; and a host of nieces and nephews.
