

Mr. Roy Clincy

July 1, 1957 - February 2, 2024

In remembrance of a man whose passion for life was as boundless as his talents were diverse. Roy Jerome Clincy was born on July 1, 1957, to the union of John C. and Rachel Clincy in Jackson, Mississippi.

He was a true renaissance soul, a master of many trades, and a beacon of love and light to all who were fortunate enough to know him. Roy kept a smile on his face, and he would put a smile on others' faces because he was naturally funny. He took life in stride.

With an insatiable curiosity and an unparalleled work ethic, he delved into countless pursuits, mastering each one with a fervor that inspired all who crossed his path. From the precision of a craftsman to the artistry of a musician, and from the wisdom of a scholar to the creativity of an artist, Roy embraced every endeavor with unwavering dedication and an infectious enthusiasm that left an indelible mark on those around him.

Roy was a living testament to the power of love, pouring his heart and soul into everything he did. He radiated a warmth that brought joy to all who knew him. His love knew no bounds, extending not only to family and friends, but also to the countless lives he touched through his generosity, compassion, and unwavering support.

As we say "see you later" to the man who mastered the myriad of paths he walked, let us carry forward the legacy of his love, perseverance, and unlimited spirit. Though Roy's earthly journey has come to an end, the echoes of his love and the echoes of his slew of accomplishments will continue to resonate in the hearts and minds of all those who were touched by his remarkable presence.

Roy Jerome Clincy departed this life on February 2, 2024. He is survived by his: three sisters, Margaret McMillian, Denise Woodson, and Thelma McMillian; one brother, Harry Clincy; sister-in-law, Jessie (Linda) Clincy and Jonathan (JJ) Love.: mate, Bridgette Perry; grandson, Jonathan Love; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other family members.

“ To Thelma, Denise, Margaret, Harry Clincy and the entire family:

My deepest sympathy to you. Our families grew up together from babies to adulthood until we moved away from 1613 West Wright St in 1984.

Roy helped my mother, Ms. Georgia as he would call her, for so many years with the chores around our home. I will forever be grateful.

Your family has meant so much to me during my lifetime. I am unable to be with you all on Friday, but please know my thoughts are with you. I am only a phone call away.

Love, Kathy Carson
