

Mrs. Sammie Mae Luster

July 5, 1930 - July 5, 2017

Sammie Mae Luster was born on July 5, 1930 to the union of Samuel and Julia Mae Rogers in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. A strong-willed young girl who was confident and determined, she received her formal education in the Arkansas School District. Sammie accepted Christ at an early age and was united with Canaan Missionary Baptist Church in Milwaukee, Wis., where she remained a member until her passing. A dedicated and faithful member, Sammie demonstrated her love for God and his people as the founder of the Lydia Circle and a steadfast usher on board No. 1. A steward of God's word, Sammie was devoted to her faith; she believed in reading the Word and meditating on it daily. Sammie Rogers was united in holy matrimony with James Luster Jr. in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Blessed with two children, Sammie was a loving and dedicated mother. She was employed by Veterans Administration Hospital, where she served as a dietitian for more than 30 years. A nurturer and compassionate giver, Sammie dutifully served in her capacity. In her leisure, she enjoyed shopping, watching Western movies, sports and attending church. With her wittiness, sense of humor, joyful laugh and infectious smile, Sammie was the epitome of love. She enjoyed talking with her family and friends, making any conversation a special one. Sammie Luster departed this life on July 5, 2017. She was preceded in death by her husband, James Luster Jr., her daughter Flora A. Woods, her son, James B. Luster III and sister Georgia Mae Sabb. She leaves to cherish her memory: her brother, Charles (Diana) Cotton; daughter-in-law, Phyllis Luster; her granddaughter, Alexis (Dewin) Stewart; her grandson, James B. Luster IV; her great-granddaughter Avery B. Stewart; and a host of family and friends.
