

Mr. Samuel Love, , Jr.

March 16, 1930 - April 20, 2016

Samuel Love Jr., was born March 16, 2016, to the union of Samuel and Zena Love Sr. in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Samuel received his formal education in the Milwaukee Public School System. After graduating from Lincoln High School, he began working for Drobac Construction.

Samuel married Ruth Jones on October 30, 1948, in Milwaukee Wisconsin. They were happily married for twenty years and blessed with nine beautiful children. Samuel moved to East Chicago, Indiana in 1966 where he worked at Inland Steel until his retirement.

Sam was genuinely loved by anyone and everyone who was blessed to have made his acquaintance. There were three things in life he truly loved; his family, The Jesters, and having a good time. There are not enough words in the dictionary that can begin to describe a summation of Sam's life. He not only lived his life He LIVED his life to the fullest.

Although we will miss him beyond measure, we want him to know that he did a great job and wish him well on his journey. We will remember his smile, his energy, love of life, and last but not least, his classic one-liners. So in the words of the man, the myth, and the legend the party must go on, every time your heart beats because one monkey don't stop the show! May you rest in peace, dear father, brother, uncle, grandfather and friend, until we meet again.

He will forever be remembered by his devoted brother Lowell; loving Sister Athea Jackson; His children Richard, Roger, Sandrice, Royce (Gladys), Zena, Samuel, Ruth, Myrtle (Kenneth), and his adopted son Lucius. His twenty-four treasured grandchildren, thirty-nine great grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild, his lifelong friend Robert Mays, his special and loving friends; Olietha Martina, Corriette Burks and Robert Q. Williams and countless other family and friends whom were blessed to have known him.

Sam was preceded in death by his parents; Brother Leonard; daughter Ricarda; granddaughter Adia May; grandson Roger Tatum; and his special brother in law, Joseph Lewis Peters.
