

Mr. Samuel Allen Ridgeway

January 8, 1952 - June 19, 2014

Samuel Allen Ridgeway was born on January 8, 1952 to the union of Georgia Mae Ridgeway and Elijah Tarver. He received his formal education in the Milwaukee public school system. Samuel accepted Christ as his Savior in 2000 and Was united with Park lawn Assembly of God, Holy Redeemer Church of God in Christ and also St. Francis. Samuel's heart, under the direction of the Lord was pulled towards attending and joining Christ the King Baptist Church. Sickness fell upon Samuel and he was unable to attend church, so he would listen online (Praise God!).

Samuel was united in holy matrimony with Catherine Carter-Williams. Samuel and Catherine met each other at the age of twelve years old. They remained friends and at the age of seventeen years old they began dating and later married.

Samuel and Catherine knew that they where each other soul mates. Samuel was very loving, caring and devoted man. He was a great husband, father, grandfather, son, brother and uncle. Their union was blessed with two children.

He was employed by Hydrite Chemical Company as a supervisor/plant operator for forty years. He was a dedicated, loyal, honest hard worker. Samuel loved his job and co-workers. Hydrite was a very family orientated company.

Samuel spent most of time with family and his grandchildren. Sam loved his family, grandchildren and friends. His grandchildren were his life and there was nothing he wouldn't do for them. Samuel always gave to the United Way, Bread of the world (program of helping cancer children). Samuel always believed in helping others whenever he could. Samuel was such a joy to be around. His loving presence will be truly missed. God directed his wife Catherine to Christ the King

Church and Catherine obeyed God, later to find out Samuel and Reverend John W. McVicker Sr. grew up together. (look at God) his wife, Catherine; sister, Lisa Cruthers; Lisa's granddaughter Danay, sister, Marjorie Parrott; niece, Latoya; and her children Xi on and Xachery just love Christ the king Baptist church and the Reverend McVicker.

Samuel Allen Ridgeway departed this life on June 19,2014. He was preceded in death by James Robert Ridgeway, father, Elijah Tarver; uncle, James Willie Ridgeway; aunt, Arabella Louise Ridgeway.
