

Mr. Samuel Lee Smith

October 8, 1952 - September 27, 2020

Samuel Lee Smith was born October 8th, 1952 to the union of Eddie Lee and Ethel Mae Smith in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Samuel Smith completed his formal education at North Division High School in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Samuel Smith was raised Jehovah Witness and cherished this spiritual relationship. Samuel Lee Smith was united in holy matrimony with Denise Marcelle Mays on September 7th, 2020 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He was employed by Minor Steel & Prestige Auto as a Black Smith for many years. Samuel Smith was a family man. He loved hard, if he had it you had no matter if it was a million dollars or 20 cents. His home was your home, and everyone was safe and welcomed with open arms. Samuel was a good time whether he was throwing New Year's parties or just sharing his last piece' of liver cheese .. In his leisure, he enjoyed card games, storytelling, barbeques, driving Cadillac's, and shopping for jewelry, His preference was diamonds. Samuel would have a stiff drink in hand with a cheers to the good life with all his family and friends. He will be deeply missed.

On the morning of Sunday, September 27th, 2020 Samuel finalized his time in this world before he went to rest in God's promise. He was preceded in death by his father, Eddie Lee Smith, and his sister Chriselle Smith.

He leaves to cherish his memories: His wife Denise Marcelle Mays-Smith, his son Samuel Lee Sims, daughter Brandy S. Thomas (David Amos), Honorary

“ My cousin Sammy could not be ignored! He was a unique man who had a style of his own! He even had language that was unique and individual to who he was. As a younger cousin I admired his individuality. As I grieve over his loss I'm left with many wonderful precious memories! I will cherish them as long as I live! My condolences and love to my cousin! Praying for godly comfort.
