

Mr. Scottie Jerome Cameron

May 15, 1964 - June 25, 2018

Scottie Cameron was born on May 15, 1963 to Jimmy Long and Yvonne Cameron in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

His loving parents; Ola Mae and Horace Tatum provided him with the nurturing and guidance needed to withstand life challenges.

Scottie accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at a young age and never lost his faith.

He received his formal education in the Milwaukee Public School System.

Scottie lived life to the fullest; he was warm, kind, and loving. He was a wonderful son, brother, father, cousin, uncle, and friend who enjoyed spending quality time with his family and friends. He loved his kids but he had that "special" love for his grandchildren. In his leisure he enjoyed caring for pets, playing and singing the Blues as well as riding his customized bikes.

Scottie was united in holy matrimony to Cynthia Polk on April 9, 1994. The two were inseparable and she was the love of his life.

On June 25, 2018 he transitioned from his earthly home to his eternal home. He will be truly missed by all whom lives he touched.

He was preceded in death by his biological parents; Yvonne Cameron and Jimmy Long, parents; Ola Mae and Horace Tatum, wife; Cynthia Cameron, grandparents; Lucille and Frank Cameron, aunt; Ida Cameron, uncle; Larry Cameron, brothers; Scottie Long, Michael and Darrell Tatum, six grandchildren and a host of other family members.

Scottie leaves to cherish his loving memory children; Jerome (Samantha), Kenneth, Michael and Tina Cameron, Carolyn and Evon Polk, Aleysha and Ashonti Lenior, sisters; Tina Cameron, Sherry Tatum, Aneisha Johnson, Anetra (Arthur) Billing, Tammy (Corey) Brimley, Tina Ashford, Cynthia and Kina Long, brothers; Michael Cameron, Jimmy Long Jr., Vincent, Anthony and Donald (Debra) Tatum, Terry Billinger loving nieces and caregivers Nichole, Brittany and Latoya Cameron a host of grandchildren, along with a host of nieces, nephews, family members and friends.
