

Ms. Sharon R. Slaughter

March 9, 1955 - March 27, 2021

Sharon Renee Slaughter was born into this life on March 9, 1955, to the union of Harold and Virginia Slaughter.

She was baptized, as many Milwaukee black Catholic children were, by Fr. Matthew Gottschalk and educated early through parochial school system of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. In 1973, she followed in her older sister, Andrea's, footsteps graduating from West Division High.

After high school, she took her culinary skills she learned from her mother and went to cook for the priest of Notre Dame in Whitefish Bay, WI.

She then moved on to Silver Spring Neighborhood Center working with the babies, that is where her love for shaping and forming young minds first began. From there, she went on to work at VE Carters.

In between finding her true passion of teaching young children, she found the love of her life with the help of her little sister. Tommie Lee Bishop entered her life and with that came her greatest two joys or rather three, Thomas, Terrance, and the one most of all, KINGSTON, her grandson.

Sharon earned her associates and bachelor's degree to continue her mission in early childhood education to shape the minds of young people.

From a request to have a Covid test, she was given a diagnosis that was a surprise to her, something that was hard as she tried, she could not fight; and she had to surrender to on March 27, 2021 .

Sharon was preceded in death by her parents, Harold T. Slaughter and Virginia Slaughter; brothers, Horace Slaughter and Harold Slaughter Jr.: and sister, Gail Slaughter.

She leaves to mourn her passing: sons, Thomas (Katrina) and Terrance (Pamela) Bishop of Milwaukee, WI; grandson, Kingston Bishop of Milwaukee, WI; sisters, Andrea Slaughter of Milwaukee, WI, Jacqueline (Thomas) Simmons of Conyers, GA, and Karen Slaughter of Stone Mountain, GA; her life partner, Tommie Lee Bishop of Milwaukee, WI; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, family, and friends.

“ May God comfort your family in the loss of your mother, grandmother, and sister Sharon. She was a good friend of mine and many others from the Guadalupe Head Start program where she touched many children's lives for years. She will be missed. I'm sad that she didn't get to retire and enjoy her boys and her little grandson's life more. I know they meant the world to her. I'm glad she raised two strong young men who God willing will grieve but will recover after the loss of their mother. Again may God bless you all at this time. And please remember, your beloved is in a better place with the Lord above. And he has gained a new angel to sing in his choir!! Ms. Debbie❤️🙏❤️
