“ I did not have the pleasure of knowing your loved one personally. I read this obituary in the paper and was compelled to send my condolences for your loss. Losing a child at any age is one of the hardest things a parent will ever have to experience in their life time. I am well acquainted with the sorrow death brings and hoped the family might be comforted by these encouraging words from the bible: “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither outcry nor pain be any more, the former things have passed away.” (Re. 21: 4, 5) Again, my deepest condolences to the family.
