“ I have very fond memories of Mrs. Williams being outside, faithfully watering her grass and her many plants that she kept on her front porch. We lived right next door to the Williams family. I appreciated how she used to let us hang out at her house with Nay Nay Nina. A few things that all who lived in the neighborhood will remember is her hanging clothes outside on the clothes line and her Sunday morning gear when she was headed to church. When we would say "Hi Mrs. Williams", she would respond, "Hi baby."###imported-begin###Mary LaDisa###imported-end##
