“ I was honored to help Sonja edit her book, He Who First Held Her Heart. I enjoyed our collaboration very much. Sonja was smart and warm and funny. One day she and her sister (sorry, not sure which one) stopped by my apartment to drop something off. Such laughter! Such good energy! I'm sure you will all miss her very much.

“ The greatest thought that I have of Sonja is that she simply LOVED. She loved deeply and she loved with a purpose. It did not matter who the person was Sonja exude love. Love for GOD! Love for her children! Love for her family! She even showed Love to strangers. She had a very forgiving heart and was always sure to do her due diligence in every situation. Raising her boys into young men was her hearts work and she did a great job. I have no doubt in my mind that they will continue to make her proud.

I send the warmest hug and prayers of comfort to her children and remaining family. Continue her legacy and hearts work.

With the Love of Jesus, Carlotta Tyler

“ Sonja and I went to high school together, and reconnected within the last few years. She always had a sweet and gentle spirit, and a quiet strength. I will miss her. Please accept my condolences to her sons and the rest of the family. May God grant you peace, comfort, and strength.
