May 14, 1942 - January 20, 2016

Suzanne Theresa Gatson was born on May 14th, 1942 in Marquette, Michigan to the union of Angeline Tourangeau and Harry J. Verlinde.

Suzanne received her education at Riverside University in Milwaukee, WI graduating in 1960.

Suzanne Verlinde was united in holy matrimony with Clarence Lee Gatson in 1962.

For the next several years she raised Whitney with Linda's assistance.

Suzanne had many successful work ventures.

She worked as a meat cutter at Kohls, a machine operator at Harley Davidson, and several other jobs before she found her purpose in caring for the elderly.

She was devoted to her patients caring for them with respect and kindness; they loved her.

Suzanne had many hobbies, she enjoyed exotic bubble head goldfish, finches, Siamese and Himalayan cats, Shih Tzu dogs, teacup butterfly fairies, and bonsai trees.

She also enjoyed Jazz music, camping, fishing, and riding her bike at the lagoon.

The words she left her children and grandchildren with were be happy, cover your own butt, and smile.

Suzanne departed this life on January 20th, 2016.
