

Mr. Sylvester Ratliffe

June 13, 1960 - September 22, 2023

Sylvester Ratliffe was born to Ella Brown and Eddie Ratliffe. He was born Drew, MS- and later moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Milwaukee became his permanent resident. He graduated from North Division High School.

He enjoyed gathering and having good times with family and friends. He had a creative hand for landscaping, always kind, generous with such a good heart. He learned Bible truths when he started to attend congregation meetings, assemblies and conventions with his wife and daughter.

During his illness he remained humble even throughout all he had to endure. He knew that God wasn't the cause of his suffering. He realizes that the best is yet to come with a bright future ahead. Sylvester is in a deep sleep awaiting the resurrection to an endless life without any pain, outcry, sorrow nor death; the former things will be of the past.

(Revelation 21:3,4)

He's preceded in death by his parents and stepson Ramondo Johnson. As Sylvester sleeps he is mourned by his loving and devoted wife Minnie Ratliffe, his son Sherron Ratliffe, daughter Tichina Dowell, stepdaughter J akita Reed, one granddaughter Amiya Ratliffe; Two step grandsons:

Ramondo Johnson Jr and Antonio Reed; Three brothers: . . .Eddie Brown, Otis Brown of Milwaukee, WI; Eddie Ratliffe of Grenada MS; Three sisters: Ella Brown, Jackie Brown, Johnny Brown Collins; Five brother-n-law; four sister-n-laws; one son-n-law Branden Dowell of Lake Worth, FL; Host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, friends.
