

Ms. Tanya Simone Bliss

August 11, 1968 - September 14, 2018

Tanya Simone Bliss was born in Buffalo, New York on August 11, 1968. She spent most of her childhood and adulthood in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. She graduated from North Division High School and later earned two Associate Degrees from Milwaukee Area Technical College in Phlebotomy and Information Technology. In addition, she was certified as a Microsoft IT Specialist by Marquette University. She worked for Wheaton Franciscan Healthcare (St. Joseph Hospital) as a Phlebotomist for many years. Most recently, she worked for (MCFI) Milwaukee Center for Independence in the Health Care field. Tanya was also a student of The University of Phoenix (online bachelor's degree). Tanya had a love for small children, serving as a Foster Parent for many years. Tanya's administrative skills were beneficial to many businesses including Child Care Matters Network, Inc. Tanya was a pro at decorating and became a partner of Creative Party Paks, Inc, a decorating and balloon delivery business; bringing a smile to others was important to Tanya.

Ms. Bliss departed life on September 14, 2018. Tanya will always be loved by two sons: Adrian Eric Rashad Moore and Jordan Antonio Antwan Bliss-Butts, four brothers: Valcos Bliss, Erik Bliss, Derek Bliss, and Ben Rich (Kim); father, Ronald (and stepmother, Darlene) Bliss; two uncles, Dana Johnson and Wilbon Jr. Johnson; a very special best friend of 26 years, Necole Huffman; and her Sister Circle of friends: Kim (Appel), Birneta, Rosalind, Tawanda, and China.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ Cheri H. lit a candle in memory of Ms. Tanya Simone Bliss

Cheri H. - September 21, 2018 at 04:08 PM

DK

I JUST found out about Tanya...smh I miss my friend and pray she is resting easy💔

Dawn Keys - October 26, 2018 at 07:53 PM