“ My condolence goes out to the family. Tawanda and I grew up together and got into so much trouble. Although, we lost touch after the family moved. We had our first job together and got fired because they expected us to work. Then we tried shoveling snow in the winter time for extra cash. But that again did not work because it required too much work and hard labor. I smoked my first and last cigarette with my running buddy. While I was about to cough up a lung, she was laughing her butt off saying breathe. These and other memories will be forever remembered and treasured in my heart. In your time of sadness, my thoughts of heartfelt sympathy is with the family.##imported-begin##Rabbit##imported-end##
