“ I am so sorry for your loss! I went to high school with Teyon, Milw. Tech. c/o 86'. He was such a good guy, quiet, pretty much kept to himself.

My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. My dad passed on the 21 of Dec. 2010, so I know what you're going through.

May GOD comfort you in your time of healing.

Stay Blessed!

“ To Pam and the Kids and to ALL the Erby family,
Words cannot express our sorrow for your loss. Heaven has received a fine man who was loved by many. We can relate to the feelings that flow with an untimely death. Acceptance, not time, can heal such pain. We have also just recently been through the challenge of seeing such suffering and experiencing the peace in knowing that it has finally ended. Confirming Truth helps to strengthen and comfort you in that.

Our love never has and never will end, it is agape! Be encouraged, be strong and be together.

Love Always, Clarence and Pamela Johnson##imported-begin##Pamela Johnson##imported-end##
