December 20, 1983 - August 18, 2023

TIARA ANN COLE was born on December 20, 1983 to the union of Richard and Annie Alford in Milwaukee, WI.

Tiara received her education at Solomon Juneau Business High School. She furthered her education graduating from Gateway Technical College. She was determined and focused and was currently pursuing her studies as an RN.

Tiara accepted Christ at an early age and was united with St. Mary's Baptist Church.

She continued her journey with other ministries and never lost faith. She was employed by Homes for Independent Living and other various nursing facilities where she diligently served as a CNA and showed passion for caring for the elderly.

Tiara touched so many lives in so many ways. To know her was to love her. Spending quality time with loved ones was what she enjoyed the most. She enjoyed preparing food, especially grilling, and making on any occasion you never had to ask.

In her leisure time Tiara made sure to call at least 2 or 3 times a day just to see what everybody was doing or to hear your voice.

She kept us wondering with the classy outfits, hats, to endless hair colors that only she could pull off. Tiara was the light in the room keeping us entertained with hilarious made-up raps and dance moves. One thing for sure Tiara was going home when that hip started hurting. She was so brave to endure so much she fought but never gave up.

She treated our children like her own, playing games, watching movies, eating snacks, or just enjoying being with them. She was faithful, reliable, hardworking, outgoing, and vivacious the list goes on. But her greatest attribute was the Love she exhibited towards everyone. She was there whenever and gave her last. Affectionately called "TT Cereal" by her niece Tinkie, she will be missed dearly. Her precious memories will linger on in our hearts.

Tiara Ann Cole departed this life on August 18, 2023. She was preceded in death by: Grandfather- Jerry Cole, Father- Richard Alford, Son- Sean Richard Moore Jr, Nephew-Giovanni Cole, Uncles An any Brunson and Jerry H Cole Jr.
