Timothy Bradford Irby was born October 24, 1956 in Cape Girardeau, MO, to Arnold Joseph and Anna B. Irby. He accepted Christ as his personal savior at an early age, at 2nd Baptist Church. He loved laughing, talking, and reminiscing about the good old times. Timmy enjoyed sitting around kicking it with his buddies and watching sports. He loved music, bowling and traveling. Now, Timmy did have a comical side about himself, He would keep you busting in stitches with laughter. You never knew exactly what would be coming out of that mouth, but you knew whatever it was, it would make you laugh.

Our brother had a very big giving heart and has helped almost all of us in some way or another, He would help anyone.
