The Legacy of Timothy David Jones

"To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:" Ecclesiastes: 3

A Time to Be Born

On September 20, 1963 in Chicago, Illinois a beautiful baby boy was born, Timothy David Jones who would leave a legacy for those touched by his life. His parents, Wendell H Jones and Joan N.

Jones provided him with the nurturing and guidance needed to face life's challenges.

A Time to Plant

Timothy who was affectionately called "Butter" was introduced to Christ at six months old and was baptized. He and his family were united with Holy Sanctuary Church in Chicago, Illinois.

Tim attended school in Chicago and Weaton, IL. At the tender age of 13 his family relocated to Milwaukee, Wisconsin where Timothy attended Nicolet High School in Glendale, Wisconsin.

A Time to Gather Stones

Tim was gainfully employed as a Sales Representative for various companies. He lastly worked at the Milwaukee Times, as a Sales Representative.

A Time to Laugh - A Time to Love

Tim enjoyed life and spending quality time with his family and friends. He adored his only sister, Lisa. In his leisure, Tim enjoyed swimming, boxing, watching sports, going to bible study and memorizing the scripture.

A Time to Sleep

Life should be measured not by the number of years, but rather by the love shared, the memories made, the joy given and the blessings received. On May 16, 2015 God in His infinite wisdom transitioned Timothy David Jones from his earthly home to his eternal home. He will be truly missed by all whom lives he touched.

A Time to Weep

He leaves to cherish his precious memories, his loving Mother Joan Jones; beloved father, Wendell Jones; sister, Lisa Jones; niece, Jasmine Jones; grandfather, Levi Jones; aunts, Hertercene Laney and Jean (Claude) McKay; uncle, Jerry (Mary) Holloway; and a host of cousins and loving friends. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Marshall Holloway and Emma Holloway; his paternal grandmother, Mildred Jones; uncles, Marshall Holloway Jr. and Robert Holloway.
