“ I remember being at Madison because my dad worked there. Being greeted with a "Wassup Lil Sarge" or "Wassup Lil Sis," made my heart warm. I was a few years younger, so I was looked at as a little sister by everyone. But there was something special about Colli. He was very sweet and kind. He was like my protector in a way. He used to tell me if anything was going on just come to him. He was a down to earth young man. I miss him so much. He'll never be forgotten, he never did no wrong in my eyes. I can't believe he'll be 22 this year. Rest Easy Big Bro.

“ Tracolli was a very nice young man. He was never disrespectful to me. He had a playful nature about him and a good spirit overall. I know he will be deeply missed by all. May God provided the family with the strength they need to make it through this storm. My prayers are with you. Respectfully Natasha Sanders-Beavers RN, BSN (school nurse for JMAC)
