“ My husband and I send our condolences to Dr. Valeria's family. Prayers going up for you all. I met sis. Val at Calvary Revival Church in Norfolk VA. We all served on the maintenance team together. I remember Val buying our son a maintenance t-shirt because the shirts that the church gave us were too big for him, that made him so happy because he felt like he was really apart of the team. She had such a beautiful smile, and I loved talking to her about anything. She will truly be missed. Until we meet again. Deaconess Sonica Murray and family.
