“ Mr. Pipkin was like family. He and my dear mother, Evelyn Grant, were the best of friends for almost 20 years. I remember many shared morning coffees and dinners with Mr. Pipkin. Always in-the-know and on-the-move, he was always watching out for us to make sure everything is okay. I draw comfort in knowing that in heaven, he is okay. Sleep well, Mr. P. We are forever grateful for you, and you are always in our thoughts and in our hearts. Audra Grant

“ Walter was a good friend and handyman. He was always reliable and ready to help me with my property. After I retired and moved to Mississippi, we still kept in touch and visited when he came to Mississippi. He will truly be missed. Rest in peace, Walter.
