“ Brother Sanders was committed to his people! I always admired how humble that he was. Every Gallery night, he would try his best not to be in the lime light when Sister Marquitta would say, "I would like to introduce the person who is responsible for making sure that we have our own Gallery, so that we can showcase our own artist"! He would hesitate, because he didn't want the people to think that it was all about him! Brother, rest in peace! I am praying for the family!

Much Love,

God Bless,

Sister, Janette Herrera
