“ William Haynes was my Stepfather and he'd been in my life for over 40 years. My fondest memories of him were when I was about 7 years old. On Sundays after dinner, he would plug-up his electric guitar and amp and just play. He would play old blues songs and riffs, and he was quite a musician. Acyually, he was my very first musical influence and helped me obtain a love for the guitar. I'm now a 47 year-old music producer and I owe it all to my Stepdad, William Haynes.
