

Mrs. Willie Mae Booker

December 4, 1930 - October 7, 2013

Willie Mae Booker was born on December 4, 1930 in Brownville, Tennessee to the union of Callie Mae Allison and Walter Allison.

She received her formal education at Travel Rest Middle/high School in Brownville Tennessee.

She attended Hickory Grove Missionary Baptist church of Brownville, Tennessee as a child.

She moved to St. Louis Missouri in 1975, and later married James R. Booker. Being of strong Christian heritage, she confessed a hope in Christ at an early age and united with Greater Cornerstone Missionary Baptist Church.

In 1989, Willie Mae Booker moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin where she was employed at C. Ross Health Care Service and attended St. Mary Missionary Baptist Church. Due to multiple medical conditions in 1998, she was no longer able to attend church.

Her presence will be greatly missed. She silently fell asleep in the arms of Jesus on Monday, October 7, 2013. She leaves to cherish her precious memories (eight grandkids) Latasha Cole, James (Antoinette) Cole (one stepson) Freddie (Lisa) Cole, Tiger Broyld, Sandy Broyld, Angie Broyld, Elijah Broyld, Issac Broyld, two honorary granddaughters), Rachel (Demetrius), Roshelle (Kevin).
