I met Willie through my sister, Nadean, with whom he shared a longtime friendship. They enjoyed eating out, going to rummage sales and fishing. He was such a sweetie - and our family loved him. His presence will truly be missed.

“ With heartfelt condolences Anitra, Kim I'm so sorry for your loss. wishing you peace and comfort
 What a amazing person Willie was a generous man to family and friends a great Father. I was very blessed to call Willie my friend. I'm sure going to miss our early morning chat on Sunday on my drive to church kept me grounded to speak to him over the years, My heart is broken not to be able to speak to my childhood friend again
 Anitra I'm so proud of you, Your Father will always live in your heart, in your memories, may you find comfort in his presence around you
