“ Mr. & Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Willie Perkins & Family My twin sister and I would like to express our deepest sympathy to the entrie Perkins Family, in your loss. This poem is for you. As a river bends and turns in it's journey, so also do Our lives. Just know that Will is not gone, but only at a place down river where we can no longer see.
Will in now experiencing new currents and living forever in all of your hearts.##imported-begin##Fanetta Marion and Fanessa

“ To the family, Mr. & Mrs. Perkins, Cherry.....At a time like this words can hardly soothe the soul, or calm the heart, but take solace in knowing that to be absent from the body is to be present with the lord, and we all know that after this long, tedious, and tumultuos battle, God saw it was time for rest. Be easy Perkins' family, and be calm knowing and trusting God's will and his plan for our lives, for we know not which way this road he has us will turn or when but we do know that God is almighty, everlasting, and ever loving. Not only is he still loving you but he's still blessing and working in favor for your good. I love you, the Lawrence's are praying for you and we will still see you at breakfast. Trust his word and count on my prayers, for the prayers of the righteous and intercession will always prevail.
