Tribute Wall

“ Uncle Bill even though you have left us in a physical sense, you have left us with so many memories that will stay with us. We have the echoes of your laughter and images of you and the sports hats you would wear. Who can count the hours in the mirror you spent combing your hair. Then we have your handsomeness and young stylish clothes you sported that caused many ladies to stare. I'll hold on to the memories of the card parties the family would take turns to host, listening to the grown-ups as you guys boast on who won the most..... But what I will miss most of all is the grown up conversations you would have with little Jackie and I. Those are the memories that will help me cope on those days when I need to cry. (Love your niece Ka'ren Shalece)

“ Uncle Bill, I have only fond memories of you. From the first time we met you welcomed me into the family and showed me kindness. You were there for me when Dad passed away and I will always be grateful for that. You will be missed. I love you. Desiree Pollard - Woods
