

Yolanda Means

April 4, 1978 - February 18, 2004

Means, Yolanda

Age 25 yrs. February 18, 2004. Funeral Mon 1PM. Instate Mon 12 Noon until time of services at Northwest Funeral Chapel.

Tribute Wall

“ Y.O.

Memorial Day is approaching and you are all that's on my mind. I never realized this setback would tear at me so deep. It was like yesterday that we were together and now I look for phone calls, emails, and visits but the wait becomes too long. I will visit your gravesite and drop off the hard copy poem we agreed on it is from Oleta Adams called "We Will Meet Again",. I know that it took long but I wanted the perfect words for a perfect person. The love is still within and will flourish when We Meet Again. Thank you for everything bringing The Funk back. Here it goes:

You've gone away left us today for another place and time

With so much more to give so much life to live so much love you left behind

*That's why it's so hard for me that's what makes it so unfair
I only hope that someday somewhere*

We will meet again We will meet again

Although I must let you go I know its not the end

It may take a lifetime but wait for me my friend

I promise you we will meet again

Don't you cry at least please try I can hear you saying

So I'll be strong I'll carry on cause I know that's how you want it to be

And as I start missing not having you around

I'll just have to say so long for now

We will meet again We will meet again

Although I must let you go I know its not the end

It may take a lifetime but wait for me my friend

I promise you we will meet again

Love Brian

P.S. Mongo said hi smile##imported-begin##Brian

Hardrick##imported-end##

May 26, 2004 at 12:00 AM

“ Yolanda;

Are the sweetest, blessed, beautiful young lady. Our family has seen you grown into a lovely person. We know you are in heaven with the angels watching over your daughter, mother, sisters, & brother. God bless the Means family & keep them strong in this time of sorrow. Always remember that we are here for you. Peace be with you.

Love, Flora Doss & Family; Brenda Idreez & Family; Kathy Jordan & Family; Josephine Doss & Family; Gladys Dagadu & Family.

##imported-begin##Flora Doss & Family##imported-end##

February 22, 2004 at 12:00 AM